

“Increasing Engagement to Close Achievement Gaps: Digital Symposium 2015”

The Kentucky Department of Education invites educators to participate in the 2015 Digital Symposium: Increasing Engagement to Close Achievement Gaps in Bowling Green on June 22, 2015 and Lexington on June 24, 2015.

This symposium will give educators an opportunity to discover how other educators are closing achievement gaps with the latest digital tools & strategies. We urge principals to nominate educators to become presenters and teachers to participate in what promises to be a great professional development opportunity.

To nominate a presenter please contact Patrice C. Nyatuame at Patrice.Nyatuame@education.ky.gov or 502-564-4772 ext.4053 for additional details. April 15, 2015 is the deadline for presenter proposals.
